RULES OF APPLICATION

- Individual Membership: ODBC membership is an individual membership and is not a family membership. A spouse/significant other can accompany the member into the club, but are not permitted to be in the club without a member present.
- Applications: Applications must be in writing, endorsed by two (2) members in good standing and accompanied by letters of recommendation from both sponsoring members. Applications, with check or money order payable to ODBC and letters of recommendation included, must be mailed to the Membership Committee Chairman. Applications submitted to the Committee in any other manner will not be accepted. The official date of the application is the date of the postmark of the U. S. Postal Service.
- Application Fee: An application fee in the amount of $1,500.00 must accompany this application. This fee is non-refundable. The applicant acknowledges that this application fee may be increased before their application has been processed.
- Initiation Fee: The initiation fee shall be due and payable at the time of interview by the Membership Committee. The applicant acknowledges that the full initiation fee may be increased before their interview and initiation into the club. Cash will not be accepted.
- Sponsors: When notified by the Membership Committee, both sponsors should accompany the applicant for interview. If a sponsor is unable to attend the interview, he/she must submit a letter of explanation to the Committee Chairman. Failure to submit this letter will result in the application being tabled. One sponsor must appear with the applicant or the application will be tabled. The letters of recommendation submitted with this application do not relieve the sponsors from the responsibility of appearing before the Membership Committee for interview when notified as required by the Constitution of the Old Dominion Boat Club.

6. ODBC Rights: Submission of this application does not constitute a contract between the Old Dominion Boat Club and the applicant for any purpose whatsoever. Pursuant to the Club Constitution, the Club reserves the right to reject any applicant in its sole discretion and to increase the dues and initiation fees associated with the membership. Submission of this application does not imply any privileges at the Old Dominion Boat Club.

7. Applicant Agreement: The undersigned applicant agrees that either as a member or guest of the Old Dominion Boat Club, he or she releases and shall not hold the Club liable for any loss, damage or injury to person or property occurring on or near the Club premises or from the use of Club facilities or equipment, including loss or damage to boats or other vehicles, their inventory or equipment which are used, stored or parked on Club premises, regardless of cause. The member and/or guest hereby agrees to assume full responsibility and risk of loss arising from the use of Club premises, equipment or facilities or participation in Club-sponsored activities and to indemnify and save harmless the Club, its agents, officers, servants and employees from or against any claim arising from use of the premises, equipment or facilities of the Club or operation and/or storage of his/her boat or motor vehicle in the Club Marina or on Club property. The member/guest warrants that he/she has insurance with respect to his/her possessions or responsibilities hereunder.

8. Applicant Violations: The sponsors may be required to appear before the Board of Governors should the applicant, if elected to membership, be engaged in any violation of the Club rules during the first year of membership.

9. Changes to Application: It is incumbent upon the applicant to advise the Membership Committee Chairman of any change of information presented.

The Old Dominion Boat Club is a private club, not in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).
